

Chills

Ever become chilled through and through? The acute sensation of cold is followed by feverishness and aches in all parts of the body. Finally the whole trouble settles in the throat and lungs in the shape of a cough. There is nothing so bad for a cough as coughing.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

will cure these chills and coughs. A few doses are sufficient at first. More time is required later on. Stop coughing and you will get well. Stop coughing and you invite bronchitis, pneumonia, or even consumption. Better stop your cough at once and thus end the whole matter.

Bow Wongs Try to Fool the Council.

HIGHBINDERS ARE EXPOSED

Death Threatened Chinese Consul if He Fights the Secret Society's Charter.

The Bow Wong Wui, the Chinese secret society now petitioning the Executive Council for a charter, seeks to hide its true character and objects by misstatement. Yesterday the Advertiser published a translation of the rules drawn for the government of the dark-lantern tong.

Attorney Henshall, counsel for the Bow Wong Wui attacks the Advertiser's facts in a communication in the Star last evening in which he says:

"The Advertiser is attempting to connect the Bow Wong Progressive Association of the Hawaiian Islands, with some other and entirely different, Chinese society. The rules printed by the Advertiser have nothing whatever to do with the Chinese Society now applying for a charter. The society has no articles, rules or by-laws as yet, the same not having been prepared."

Attorney Henshall is probably ignorant of the truth. The Advertiser investigated the Bow Wong Wui thoroughly before attacking it as a highlander clique. The published translation was made by Leung Kwai Fun, official interpreter for the Chinese Consul, in the middle of February, when the rules were printed for the Bow Wong Wui in Chinese by the Hawaiian Chinese News Company. The manuscript of the rules was taken to the news company and delivered to Chee Yik Kai, editor of the Chinese News by Dr. Li Kai Fee, one of the advisory committee of the Bow Wong Wui. C. Yick Nam, chief secretary of the Wui, took away the printed copies of the rules, and they are now being distributed. The Advertiser has copies in Chinese and English, and is prepared to refute the statement that the "rules printed by the Advertiser have nothing whatever to do with the Bow Wong Wui."

The Executive Council before which the application of the Chinese tong was made, knows the truth of the matter. On March 28, the following letter was addressed to the Council by the Chinese Consul:

Honolulu, March 23, 1900.
To the Honorable Alexander Young, Minister of the Interior.

Sir:—At the session of the Honorable the Executive Council of the Republic of Hawaii, I am informed, a communication was read declaring that its writer believed or was led to believe that the prospectus or call of which I had the honor to send a copy and translation to the Attorney-General did not relate to the Bow Wong Wui whose members have applied to you for a charter of incorporation as an eleemosynary association. I beg leave now to state to you that Dr. Li Kai Fee, a member of the committee of the Bow Wong Wui, ordered and caused that prospectus to be printed by the Hawaiian Chinese News. The order was given to Chee Yik Kai, the editor, and the printed matter returned to the members of that committee for distribution and accordingly published and distributed by them. For further information I beg leave to enclose a list of the officers of the Bow Wong Wui among which will be found the name of Dr. Li Kai Fee.

I have the honor to be
Your obedient servant,
YANG WEI PIN.

The list appended by the consul which was issued in Chinese by the Bow Wong Wui is as follows:

The names of the Committee of the Royal Protective Union of the Hawaiian Islands, U. S. A., for the protection of His Imperial Majesty Kwang Su of the Ta Tsing Dynasty are as follows: President, Wong Leon; vice-presidents H. A. Heen, Lau Kow, Choy Wan, M. C. Amama; treasurer, C. Ai; chief secretary, C. Yik Nam; assistant secretaries, H. Jack Son, Tam Tau, Yim Kun Siu, Trustees—Lee Chop Sing, Chock Hoy, Lau Ting, Leong Ying Nam, W. W. Ahana, Tong Kow, Yee Lock, Chang Pi Chin, C. Chin Yung, Du Hong, Bow Hoy, Wong Hoy Tung, Yang Chan Ying, Wong Wi Bong, Yi Tuck, Choy Ting, Ching Quong Yo.

Orators—Tong Lai Wun, Cheong Leong, Wong Siu King, Yung Wui, Tang Yuen Yik.

Advisory Committee—Pong Min Chong, Tong Wing Ming, Chang Wing, Li Ta Ma, Chang Kim Sung, Wong Fook Pui, Chang Ting Choy, Nau Chong, Chong Man Chung, Tang Po Leung, Ko Chock Wing, Lee Kong Poo, Li Kai Fee, Chow Tock Ming, Hui Ching, Ching Wing, Ching Lock Sam, Ching King Chun, Ng Yok Chun, Chan Kock Leong, Hu Chung Sun, Chee Quay, Leong Yung, Kam Ah Yee, Ho Pak Yow, Wong Fook On, Chang Man Him, Tam Leong, Wong Chong, Tam Ying Ming, Yung Mon Blu, Cheng Tau Ching, Cheng Chiu, Lam Hong, Yung Chock Hing, Lam Chung Tsin, Tong Yuen, Lam Chin, Li Sui Shik, Yi Yet Chin, Yung Sik Nam, Mow Wo Koi, Li Chong, Lau Wa Shin, Ching Ping, Tam Quong Sae, Chong Chung Sam, Chan Chan, Leong Tam Siu, Chang Ping, To Tak Sing, Chen Poi Quown.

Dated the 14th day of the 12th month of the Ki Ho Cycle year, i. e., the 25th year of Kwang Su, January 14th, 1900.

Consul Yang Wei Pin said last night, "I am certain that the Bow Wong Wui is a secret tong whose work will be for evil. Primarily its object is to plot against the Chinese Government, with which the United States is on friendly terms. But back of this is the selfish desire for power and money. One of the rules of the tong is that members may buy an unlimited number of shares at $2 each. How long will it be after the tong has power before it will levy blackmail on the Chinese merchants here? All the Chinese highlander societies in San Francisco have followed the same line. Its rule which says, 'If anyone do any harm or injury to our brothers we must retaliate the same, etc.,' affords a wide latitude for murder. Suppose a merchant not in sympathy with the Bow Wong Wui refuses to buy its shares or to be head up for a subscription, will it not be easy for the highlanders to make out his refusal an injury to be wiped out in blood? Experience has proved the true reasons for which these societies organize.

"I have been threatened with death if I continue to oppose the issuing of the charter. A letter has reached me, filled with murderous threats. It is unsigned and I have no clue to the writer."

The Consul showed plainly his fear of the unknown thug. He said that he was aware of the desperate character of some of those allied with the Bow Wong Wui. It is hardly possible that the Executive Council will consider further the granting of a charter to the Bow Wong tong. At present two Chinese societies have charters, the United Chinese Society and the See Yip Society. Both are known as clean, honest, charitable organizations. Besides there are at least seven tongs that meet in secret, one the Pow On Kuk being particularly dark in its objects and methods.

CLOUDS IN THE EAST.

Japan Preparing for War and China for Revolution.

VICTORIA, (B. C.), March 17.—China papers received to-day by the Japanese liner Idzumi Maru contain the sensational declaration that the Japanese preparations for a naval review off the Korean coast in reality conceal a plan to strike a sudden blow at Russia, and thus inaugurate a war that has been approaching for six months past the consequence of the Russian policy in Korea. Shanghai advices contain the information that the plan is to seize at least four important points in Korea while the parading fleet is off that coast, and that, in view of this intention, neither foreign nor Japanese press reporters are to be permitted to accompany the parading fleet.

Naturally the Japanese officials disclaim knowledge of any probability of immediate war, but the nation is none the less a hotbed of excitement and military and naval preparation, the war spirit being in no way cooled by the knowledge that Russia, too, is rapidly strengthening her sea forces at Masampo and at Vladivostok, while hurriedly perfecting the strong fortifications at Port Arthur.

VICTORIA, (B. C.), March 17.—Shanghai and Hongkong advices by the Idzumi Maru agree that every day brings further evidence that China is on the eve of disastrous civil strife, the leaders of the reform party being in close communication with Kang Yu Wei, still at Singapore, and having assurance from him that outside aid, both in men and money, is available as soon as the time is ripe for striking the first blow for the restoration of the Emperor to full power and the relegation to obscurity of the Empress Dowager and her pro-Russian policy.

THE SOCIALIST VOTE.

A Preacher Thinks it Makes McKinley's Election Sure.

NEW YORK, March 21.—Rev. W. D. P. Bliss, the Christian Socialist lecturer, spoke last night before the Social Reform Club on "The Social Reform Movement in the West," and predicted the re-election of President McKinley, in consequence of an immense vote that the Social Democracy will, he feels sure, poll in the middle Western States.

The people in the far Western States, continued Mr. Bliss, are growing tired of new parties, and many are thoroughly disgusted with the Populist party, whose machine is becoming corrupt. Although Debs spoke to packed houses in Los Angeles and was warmly greeted, the feeling against new parties was predominant, and there was a great inclination toward Bryan. Bryan, the lecturer believed, would get a tremendous majority in the far Western States, but Debs would get an overwhelming vote in the Middle Western States and the East, with the result that McKinley would be elected.

At the same time, Mr. Bliss noticed a great feeling of unrest in the West and he believed that the people were preparing for some great movement. The farmers were thoroughly tired of the trusts, as they were entirely at the trusts' mercy, and had to buy and sell at the trusts' prices.

SHOT AT A JUDGE.

Attempted Murder in a French Court of Justice.

PARIS, March 21, (Afternoon Service).—In the Palace of Justice today an attempt was made to murder the presiding judge of the Fifth Court by a druggist named Bardin who had just lost a suit. The judges had just taken their seats and counsel in another case had begun his speech when Bardin aimed a revolver and fired three shots at the judge, who had a narrow escape, the bullets grazing his head. Municipal guards threw themselves on Bardin and removed him to a cell, while the judge, with perfect coolness, said to counsel:

"You can continue, Maitre; it is nothing."

Clarence W. Ashford, brother of the late V. V. Ashford, is expected by his friends to arrive in Honolulu by the next Australia from San Francisco. Whether Mr. Ashford will make his home here has not been stated. He may remain to organize the Democratic party.
